ASSIGNMENT TO PROBLEM TREATMENT

After the Sub Committee agrees and accepts the statement of a problem or other project for work, study, resolution, scheduling, etc., the Sub Committee should indicate the major factors according to the current list or index of major considerations that will be mandatory considerations in the processing of the problem. However, all relevant and related considerations should be taken into account by the individual or team processing the problem, the initial indications of the Sub Committee being for the purpose of bringing together early orientation and guidance as to its appreciation of these aspects which it deems to be of first order importance. This should not preclude revision or adjustments of mandatory considerations during any phase of problem processing.
